M I Z E - B O O K

For the County-Palatine of

C H E S H I R E.

The same being TABLES ready Cast up ; whereby any Township's just Proportion of any Tax charged by Way of the M I Z E, may readily and exactly be known.

Composed about Twenty Years ago, by Mr. JOHN JOLLEY, late of Bug-Lawton, for his own private Use : And now publish'd by him for the Benefit of his Country. Anno Salutis, 1726.

L O N D O N :

Printed by J. Read in White-fryers, for the Author, of whom these Books may be had ; and also of most of the Booksellers in the County-Palatine of Cheshire.

To the Rt. Worshipful the Justices of the Peace within the County
Palatine of C H E S H I R E;

Likewise, to the Head-Constables, and all others into whose Hands these T A B L E S
may come, Greeting.

G E N T L E M E N,

AS it hath been the Practice of most Authors, since the Noble Invention of Printing, to dedicate their Labours to some Person of Merit. In compliance with Custom, after I had formed to myself several Schemes, and pur-posed to have dedicated my Labours in seven different Parts, as the County stands divided into seven Hundreds, yet this I found would not answer my Design according to my Intentions; and therefore I new modell'd the same, and resolv'd to present it to all my Countrymen in General;
and if you be but as well satisfied in the Perusal, as I have been in the Composing, I am fully assured that it will Answer my End and Intention in the Publishing hereof.

I have been so bold as to call my Book,
The Head-Constable's-Assistant, and do not in the least Doubt, but that it will answer its Name to all such as shall, but with a very little Application, endeavour to find out the Uses thereof, which I shall in the Use of my
A 2 Tables

Tables make as easy and Intelligible as I can, and hope it will answer the intended End, viz. To discover to such as have made but a little Progress in Accompts, by an easy and familiar Method how to find out what is any Township's, or Hundred's, just Proportion of any Tax laid upon the whole County, or upon any Hundred in particular, and to those who are better skill'd, and have made a farther Progress into the Noble Science of Arithmetick, (to whose more refined Judgment I would submit my Labour) I believe they will find it not only to be plain and easy, but concise enough, there never having any thing of this Nature yet been published or printed to my Knowledge. I shall not pretend to say any thing in Vindication of these Tables, being of the Opinion of a very modest Author, who lately published a Treatise of Arithmetick, That in Case a Book would not speak for itself, all the Author could say would add nothing of real Merit; but on the Contrary, the more Pains and Care is taken upon such an Occasion, the worse it generally happens, and the less Notice is taken thereof: But I would not be thought tedious; I shall only add this, that I wish every one, into whose Hands this may happen, carefully to peruse it, and I question not but it will meet with the desired Success.

I am, GENTLEMEN,

Your most obedient Servant,

JOHN JOLLEY.

The Use of these Tables may very easily be discovered by observing the following Rules.

1st.  YOU are to take Notice, that the first Column in every Table is noted on the Top with [d.] representing denarij or Pence, proceeding gradually from 1 to 11. The same representing Pence charged on the whole County, or any particular Hundred. And directly underneath you will find s. or sh. representing solidi. or Shillings, be numbred gradually from 1 to 19, charged on any Hundred. And right over-against the same you will find some Number of Shillings, or Pence, or Decimal Parts at least, a Penny being every where supposed to be divided into one Thousand equal Parts: And you will likewise easily discover another Column about the Middle of each Page, beginning from 1, and proceeding gradually to 5000 l. and these Sums do likewise represent Pounds charged on the County, or Hundred.

And the proportionable Share any Town is to pay towards the same, stands directly opposite thereto. In the same Line an Example or two will make all plain and easy.

Suppose you would find what Buglawton is to pay towards the Sum of 134 Pounds, charged upon the Hundred of Northwich.

You must first find out what Table will answer your Purpose, which you will easily do, if you look over the Townships Names in Northwich Hundred, and upon the 10th Page you will find Northwich Hundred, and underneath, the Townships Names in an Alphabetical Order, (which I thought would be most ready.) And over-against Bug-Lawton you will find 1 l. 3 s. 2 d. 41, which shews you that the Mize of Buglawton is 1 l. 3 s. 2 d. and you may find a Table suited thereto on the 41st Page. But now, because you cannot in any one Line find out the Number 134, you must take the same out at three different Times, and set the Answer to each; that is, the Sum charged for each at three different Times: Thus first Against 100 l. you find 2 l. 13 s. 6 d. 032.

Against 30 l. you find 0 l. 16 s. 0 d. 610.

Against 4 l. you find 0 l. 2 s. 1 d. 681.

Now these three Sums } being added, are } 3 l. 11 s. 8 d. 323

For

For which you may charge 3 l. 11 s. 8 d. 2 q. for you are to observe, that .250 Parts are equal to one Farthing, .500 Parts are equal to two Farthings, and .750 Parts are equal to three Farthings. Now I would advise you, when you find any Decimal, which you will almost at all Times do besides the li. s. d. if the same be .250, or any Number less, to charge for the same one Farthing; if the same be .500, or any Number less, to charge one Half-peny for the same; and if .750, or any Number less, to charge three Farthings, and if above .750, then to charge the whole Penny to the preceding Charge. But if you find the Sum in the Table that is charged on the County or Hundred then right over-against it, at one View you have the Answer; this is so evident, it would be ridiculous to give any Example hereof. Now by this Method no Township can be over-charged, but some odd inconsiderable Part of a Farthing, which will never be insisted on, or denied, and the Head-Constable cannot be a Loser by such a Collection; but besides all this, I would advise with (Submission to the Honourable Gentlemen, to whom I have dedicated this Work,) to enter it down as a standing Rule to be observed in Time to come, that each Head-Constable should receive 4 d. when he gives a Receipt to the Constable of any Township, for any Tax charged upon their Town by way of Mize; and this Collection lection would handsomely bear his Charges for his whole Year. I shall hereafter set you down the Form of a Warrant which I constantly made Use of myself, but Note, that each Head-Constable is particularly to mind the minutest Expression in every order that comes directed to him, and shall first tell you, that as a Constable's Authority is very extensive, he need make use of but few Words, but let them be such as carry Authority along with them. The Form of a Warrant may be as followeth on the next Page, being such as I constantly made use of. And although it be not necessary that you should make use of this Form, or indeed of any other upon all Occasions, which would be very ridiculous ; yet I would advise you to make use of the Words of the said Order in as concise Terms, and with as much Brevity and Authority as possible, which the Justices of the Peace will always allow, and commend ; for under the Rose the Office of a Constable was long in use before there was any Notice taken of a Justice of the Peace, they being Assistant ; and provided by our Legislators to be Judges of Causes and Matters brought before them ; but I transgress my intended Design, and only beg Leave to subscribe myself what I really am,

My Country's Well-wisher,

upon all Occasions.

Having a Part to spare to spare at the Conclu-tion of my book, to make the limits complete in point, I shall here add some further Observations, for Example: The Names of the several Hundreds you will find at the Top of the Pages in this Order: First you will find Northwich Hundred, and the same divided, as has been accustomed, into two Sub-divisions, viz. the one you will find on the right and the other on the left; and every where the Townships follow in an Alphabetical Order, which I thought to be most proper and natural.

53	and	tions are Exemplified on the
97	and	Blackfield Hundred
147	and	Ditto per Village
197	and	Newmarket Hundred
227	and	Buckley Hundred
267	and	Warrall Hundred
301	and	Highbury Hundred
331	and	Exton Hundred
333	and	334
